

WHAT IS VALEGALAID.ORG?

Valegalaid.org is a free website that offers legal self-help information in the civil law areas that lower and middle income Virginians most often confront. It also provides referrals to legal aid programs, lawyer referral services and court services, and other relevant information for low and moderate income Virginians seeking legal services.

To use valegalaid.org, simply go to the website, www.valegalaid.org, and click on one of the 16 subject areas on which you are looking for help. Resources will then appear for the subject area that you clicked.

The housing law and family and domestic law topics on valegalaid.org are two of the most visited sections of the site.

THE NO FAULT DIVORCE PROJECT IS CURRENTLY AVAILABLE STATEWIDE.

Please note that this program provides legal information and will produce forms that you can use to file for a simple, "no fault" divorce in Virginia. You will not be able to use this program if your divorce has any one of a number of complicating factors.

In all cases, it is best to consult with an attorney before you file anything in court. Information on how to find an attorney is also provided through this program.

Forms and other information are available online at:
www.valegalaid.org

CREATING NO FAULT DIVORCE DOCUMENTS ONLINE

What is a no fault divorce?

You can file for a no fault divorce as soon as you have lived physically separate and apart from your spouse for either:

- ⇒ six months (if you do not have any children under the age of 18 and have signed a written separation agreement dividing your property and resolving all other issues relating to your marriage, including spousal support)
- ⇒ One year (if you and your spouse have minor children, even if you have entered into a written separation agreement)

This separation must be continuous, without interruption, without cohabitation and with the intent that the separation be permanent.

In a no fault divorce, you do not have to claim that your spouse did something wrong, such as adultery or desertion.

YOU CAN CREATE YOUR OWN NO FAULT DIVORCE DOCUMENTS ONLINE IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEPARATED FOR AT LEAST ONE YEAR WITH A GUIDED INTERVIEW *

The no fault divorce document is created through LawHelp Interactive and you can access it by going to www.valegalaid.org. Once you go to the site, www.valegalaid.org:

- ⇒ Click on the “Family and Domestic & Sexual Violence” link.
- ⇒ Click on the “Divorce” subtopic and then find the “Uncontested Divorce Forms” link and click on it.

You will then be directed to the LawHelp Interactive No Fault Divorce interview site where you will begin the process of creating your materials for the no fault divorce packet. The process will be in the form of an easy-to-use guided interview.

Question and Answer Format. The program asks simple questions and uses your answers to create the legal form you need.

Defines Important Terms. With the click of the mouse you can find legal definitions and other helpful information.

Directs you to the Legal Aid Hotline. If at any point during the interview, the program tells you that you do not qualify to use it, the program will direct you to the Legal Aid hotline: 866-534-5243.

You can save your work and go back to it later on. Just make sure that you create an account when you are first directed to LawHelp Interactive and that you have an e-mail address. The program will keep your work confidential by requiring you to create and use a password to get back to anything you save.

This program can be used only for the simplest divorces. If your divorce is complicated, the program will not let you proceed, but will instead direct you to your local Legal Aid office.
